Important Privacy Information for Our Consumers

Our Commitment. Your privacy is important to Juniata Mutual Insurance Company. In order to serve you by issuing an insurance policy, we need to collect certain information about the property to be insured. We will respect the privacy of this nonpublic personal financial information in the manner described in this notice.

Information We Collect About You. Most of the nonpublic personal financial information we collect about you comes from your insurance application or renewal application and other forms you complete to provide the information needed in the application process. Once insured, we may also collect information about claims you file under the insurance policy or claims filed against you under the policy.

Information We Disclose About You. We may disclose the following kinds of nonpublic personal information we collect about you including your name, address, and other information received on applications. We may also disclose information about your transactions such as policy coverage, premiums, and payment history.

To Whom We Disclose This Information. We do not disclose any such nonpublic personal financial information about our customers or former customers to anyone, except as permitted by law.

Safeguarding of Information. Our employees are required to protect the confidentiality of information we receive. We maintain electronic, physical, and procedural safeguards to ensure that personal information is treated responsibly, complying with all applicable laws.

Questions. If you have any questions about this privacy notice, please write to: Juniata Mutual Insurance Company, PO Box 268, McAlisterville, PA 17049 or call 717-463-2101 during regular business hours.
